ED M'DONALD IS HAPPY.

HE SUPPOSES CHIEF SNITZLER HAS ALREADY DISCHARGED HANLEY.

Receiving the Decision of the Chief-Court and Assuming the Seat for Which He Fought—The Reward on the Second Man Dangerously Poisoned and Sentenced Who Refused to Take Back—How Joe Kinsman Received the Duty.

Shortly after 10 o'clock yesterday morning Edward M'Donald, the Democratic candidate for the office of Chief of Police, received a telephone message from Mayor Cregier, requesting him to call at the Mayor's office. Mr. M'Donald, who had been expecting the call, responded promptly, and in a few minutes was closeted with the Mayor. The latter informed him that he had received a letter from Corporation Counsel Ewing, stating that the Supreme Court had rendered a decision in the case of Mr. M'Donald against Mr. Hanley, and that the former was entitled to the office. Mayor Cregier then handed the letter to Mr. M'Donald, who read it carefully, and then, turning to the Mayor, said:

"Well, I suppose I will have to go to work."

"I suppose you will," replied the Mayor.

Mr. M'Donald then left the Mayor's office and walked over to the Chief's office, where he found Chief Snitzler and Mr. Hanley. Mr. M'Donald walked up to Mr. Hanley, and, extending his hand, said:

"Mr. Hanley, I suppose you have received notice that I am entitled to the office of Chief of Police, and I suppose you will have to vacate. I have no desire to be unpleasant, and I hope you will not be. I am sorry that I have to take the office away from you, but I suppose it is necessary."

Mr. Hanley replied that he had received notice from Corporation Counsel Ewing, and that he would vacate the office as soon as he could get his personal effects together.

Mr. M'Donald then left the office, and, on his way out, met Chief Snitzler, to whom he said:

"Chief, I suppose you have received notice that I am entitled to the office of Chief of Police, and that Mr. Hanley will have to vacate. I have no desire to be unpleasant, and I hope you will not be. I am sorry that I have to take the office away from you, but I suppose it is necessary."

Chief Snitzler replied that he had received notice from Corporation Counsel Ewing, and that he would be glad to turn the office over to Mr. M'Donald

A PILGRIM FROM DIXIE.

[SOME SAVOY GUESTS CAUSE SOME SAD, SARCASTIC.]

Gen. Gordon Gray, a Wealthy Republican, Has the Chairman and Other Folks in a Dispute—Gen. Gordon Confined a Scorpion by the Old Sage Remedy—The Salem Cabinet Propaganda.

Greensboro, N.C., Nov. 16.—[Special.]—Gen. Gordon Gray, a member of the Savoy party of visitors, was one of Gen. Harrison's earliest visitors this morning. He is a Republican and prominent in business and financial circles here and arose to fame in one of the hot fights against the anti-compliment law in the county and assembly adjustment that has the county and assembly adjustment that has the county government entirely under the control of Democrats. Gen. Gray's contest, growing out of the election of 1898, was carried to the supreme court, having been decided against him by the Democratic legislature. The Democratic element has taken kindly to the Republican gentleman.

He is a member of the executive committee of the Republican state committee and a large number of the prominent politicians of this place have evidences of a Republican pilgrimage and heaven only knows what else. Gen. Gordon Gray, however, is a Democrat, and was the guest of honor at the luncheon tendered to Gen. Harrison.

It needs a Democrat to tell a Republican how to run a campaign, and Gen. Gordon Gray is a Democrat. He is a member of the Democratic state committee and was chairman of the Democratic campaign committee in this county in 1898. He is a Democrat, but he is not a politician.

"Gen. Harrison," said Gen. Gordon Gray, "I am a Democrat, but I am not a politician. I am a business man of Greensboro, and have been engaged in business here for many years. I have been a Democrat all my life, but I am not a politician. I have never held a political office, and I have never been a candidate for one. I have been a Democrat because my father was a Democrat before me, and I have followed in his footsteps. I have been a Democrat because I believed the Democratic party was the party of the people, and I have been a Democrat because I believed the Democratic party was the party of the people, and I have been a Democrat because I believed the Democratic party was the party of the people, and
